We Appreciate

We Are Grateful

Mr. Paul R. Shuler is presently completing over three and one-half decades of teaching. Twenty-six of his thirty-six years in education have been spent here at Monrovia. Born on January 11, 1906, Mr. Shuler is a native of Martinsville. He attended Crown Center Elementary School, and ultimately graduated from Eminence High School in 1923. While continuing his education at Indiana University, Mr. Shuler supported himself by working as a dishwasher, a cook, and paperboy. A 1930 graduate of Indiana University, he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in education.

For ten years following his graduation from I.U., Mr. Shuler taught at Eminence and several schools in Jennings Co. Indiana, before retiring to his farm for five years. In 1945, Mr. Shuler returned to teaching; this time here at Monrovia. Since then, two generations of Monrovians have enjoyed his humor, and his ability to bring history alive for his students.

When not teaching, Mr. Shuler's widely varied hobbies are farming, reading, and touring the United States. His farm occupies a large amount of Mr. Shuler's spare time, as does his reading. He enjoys all kinds of books, especially those dealing with history. Mr. Shuler's third and most unusual hobby is touring the United States with his wife, Edna. Together, the Shulers have travelled to every one of the continental states. The Northwest, especially Oregon and Washington is a favorite area of the Shulers. They enjoy seeing the sites made famous in history, and Mr. Shuler's knowledge helps to make their trips more interesting.

Qualified to teach English, literature, and physical education, as well as government and history, Mr. Shuler's realm of knowledge covers a wide area. This knowledge and his tremendous teaching ability earn for him the respect and admiration of fellow teachers and the student body. Understanding his students' point of view is Mr. Shuler's primary goal as a teacher. He firmly believes that nothing is impossible if you work enough, and he is always willing to help anyone trying to help himself.

As a small token of appreciation for the unselfish hard work, and inspiration you have given us for the past twenty-six years, we dedicate this, the 1971 BULLDOG, to you, Mr. Shuler.

1. Mr. Shuler takes time out to smile for the photographer.

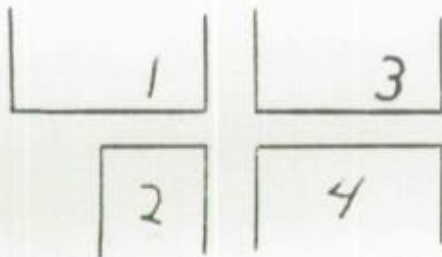

2. While touring the Southwest, Mr. Shuler found time to have his picture taken in front of a sod house.

3. Mr. Shuler guided a group of 8th graders through Springfield and New Salem Park in Illinois.

4. This is the first class Mr. Shuler sponsored when he came to Monrovia 26 years ago.

ACADEMICS

After a long day Mr. Stuffle relaxes in his office.

Mr. Polk tackles some of the paper work which is required of an elementary principal.

Behind Every Great Man

Keeping the school running smoothly is just a small part of Mr. Embry's job.

The principals, school board, and superintendent join together in a concerted effort to provide the opportunity for all students to get a good education.

It is said, "Behind every great man, there is a woman." Behind Monrovia are four females who aid in running the school. They are responsible for the mounds of paper work that must be done.

Typing is only one of Mrs. Patrick's many duties.

Mrs. Watson checks books for students' enjoyment.

There Is Always a Woman.

As the guidance counselor Mrs. Turner helps students make the right decisions.

Mrs. Hayes takes care of the students' health.

Science Explores

Between classes Mr. Patterson finds time to check his mailbox.

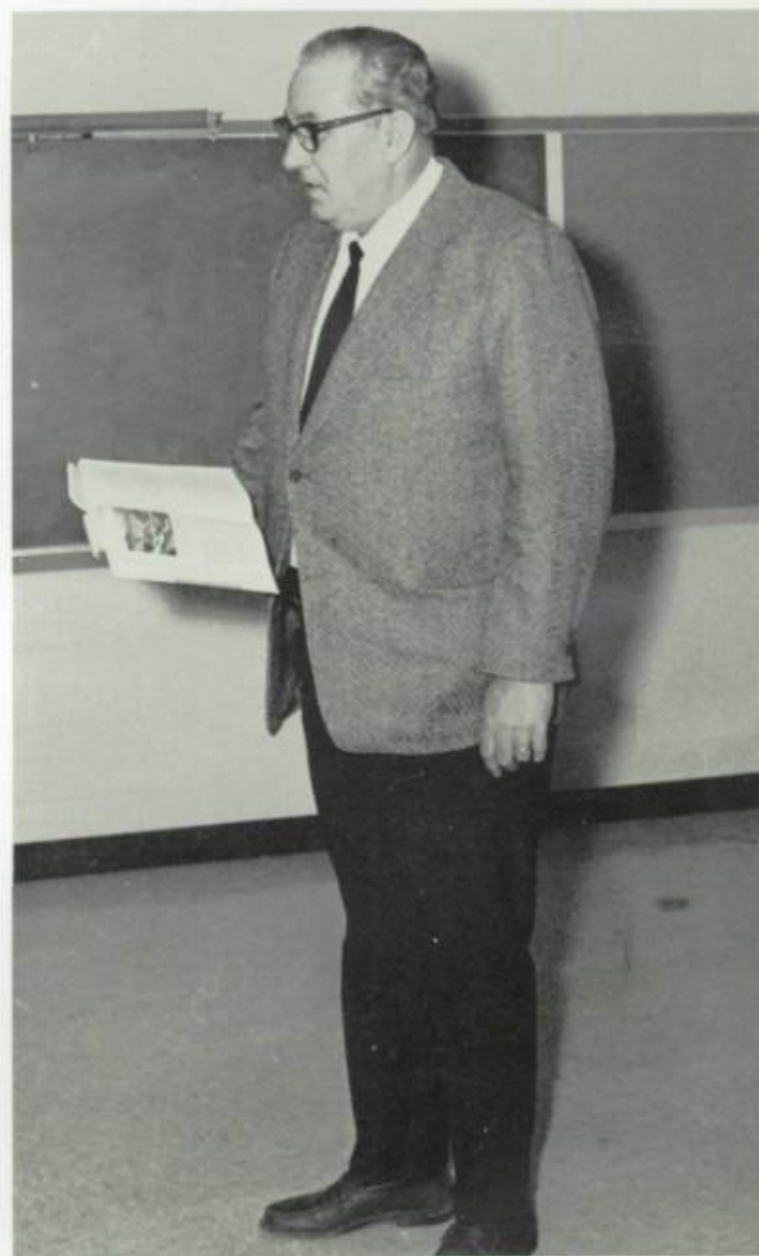

From the basics of seventh grade science, to the complexity of a catalyst, students are encouraged by teachers to explore, question and reason for themselves. As the mind matures, grows and develops in the classroom, physical education courses build and strengthen the body.

Mike Henderson listens with rapt attention as Mr. Miller explains the circulatory system.

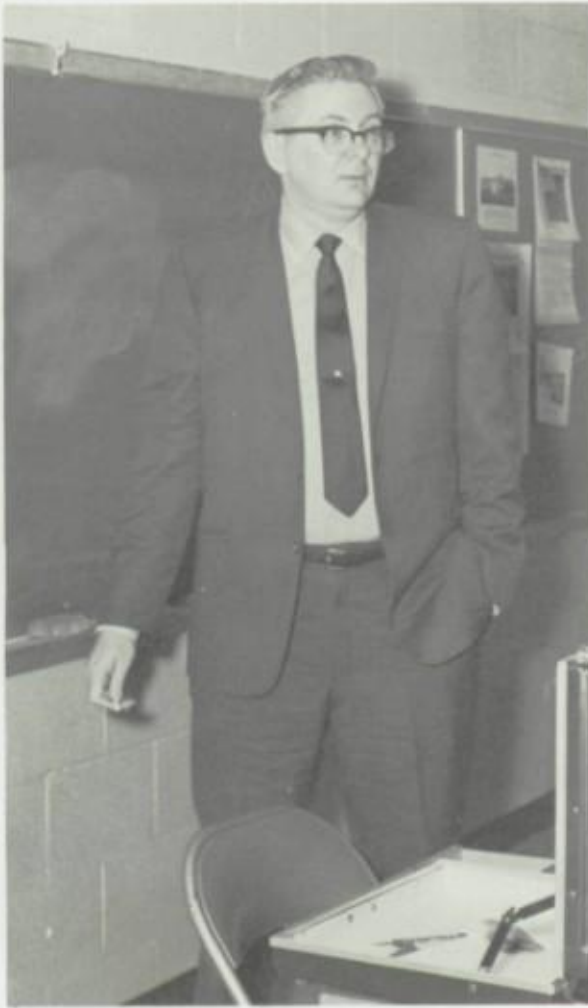

Jim Linder learns the "do's" and "don't's" of a square from Mr. Walton.

Mr. Godwin pauses for a moment before answering a question.

Math Explains

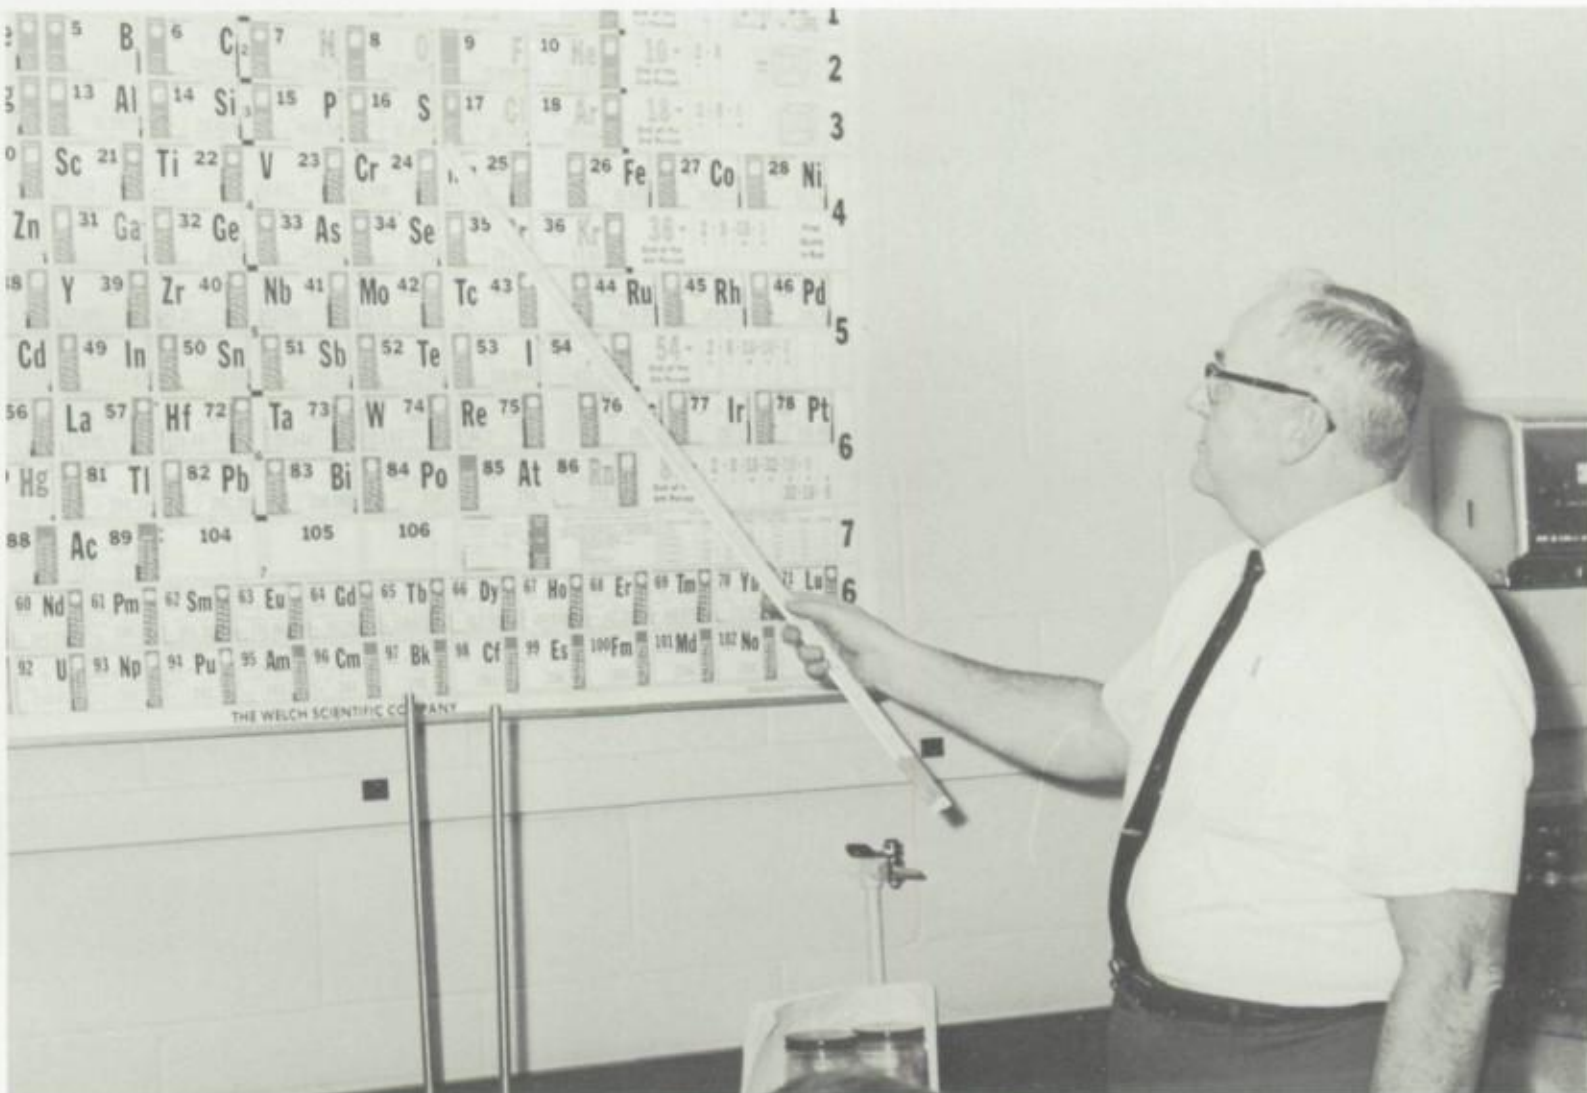

The bewildering theorems and confusing postulates are explained by Mr. Brooks.

Math is an integral part of the technical age in which we are now living. In almost all vocations, math is used. As students grow, they learn the importance of math.

Mrs. Williams explains the value of "x" and "y."

All of the answers to Mr. Crock's questions are found on the atom chart.

English Courses Increase Our Self Expression

"What do you mean you don't have your homework done! Tsk Tsk," exclaims Mrs. Wasserman.

Mrs. Byrnes poses the intriguing question "What is a noun?"

Lynda Buikema sighs with relief after Mr. Demes points out the answer to her question.

English classes provide a place for students to discuss ideas, as well as study grammar. Encompassing far more than basic grammar, or literature. Here students learn to think for themselves.

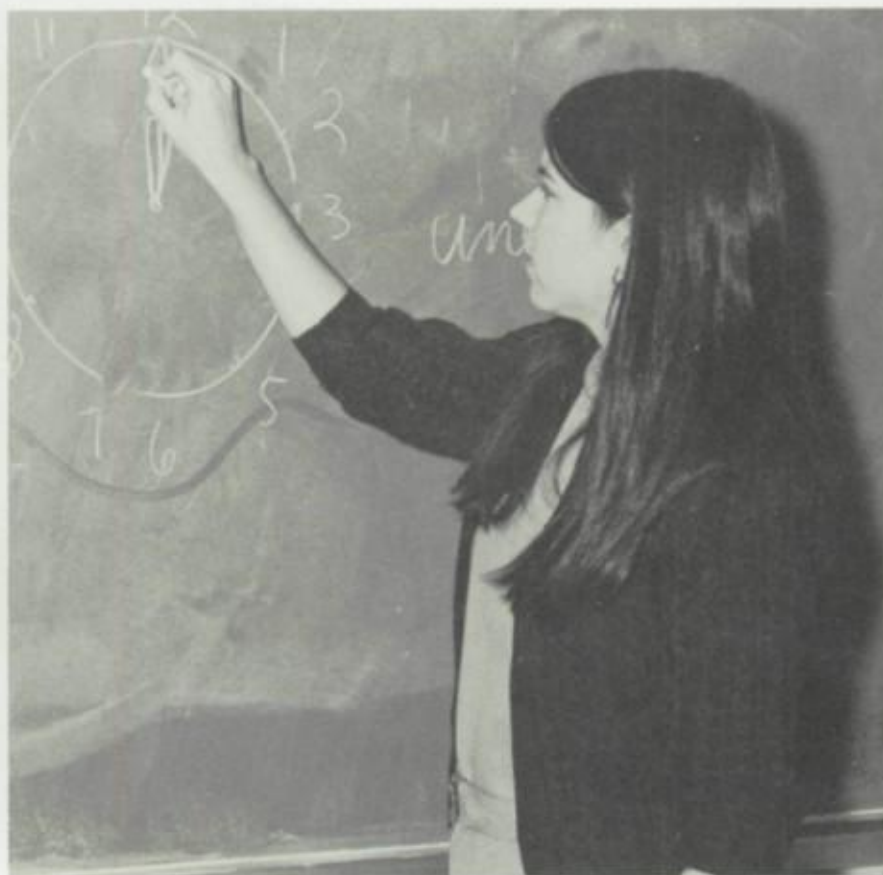

Teresa Shew smiles with embarrassment when Miss Scott finds the correct answer.

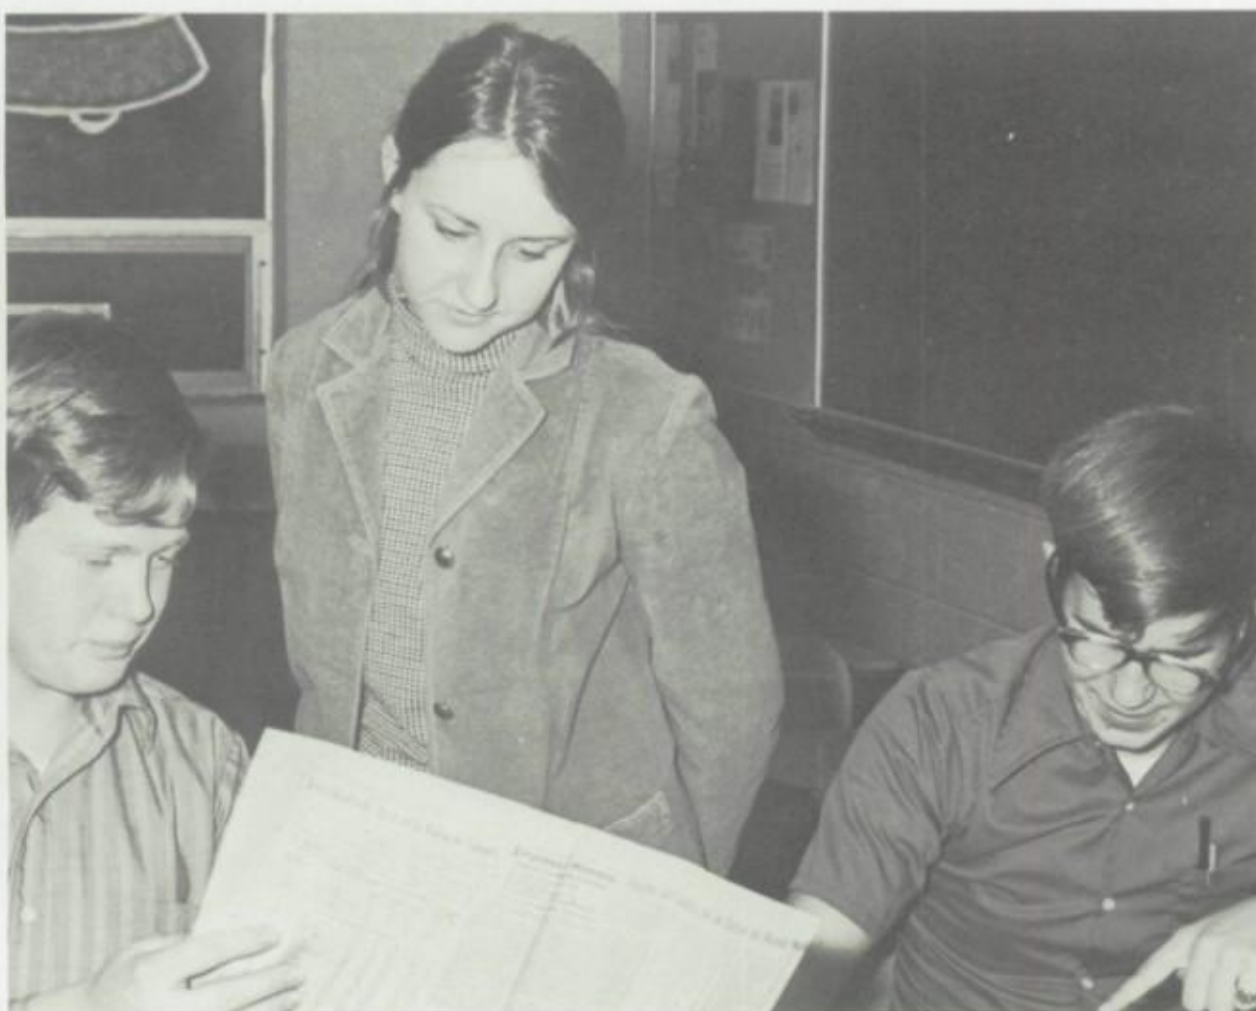

As Foreign Languages Broaden Our Horizons

Mr. Schneider explains a noun clause to David Hughes.

"Oui! Tres bien!" exclaims Mrs. Stern as a student gives the correct time in French.

Spanish newspapers and magazines are a part of Mrs. Curtis' Spanish Classes.

Latin, French, and Spanish are all offered to students at Monrovia. Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Stern all strive to teach now only the language, but the culture of the country from which the language comes.

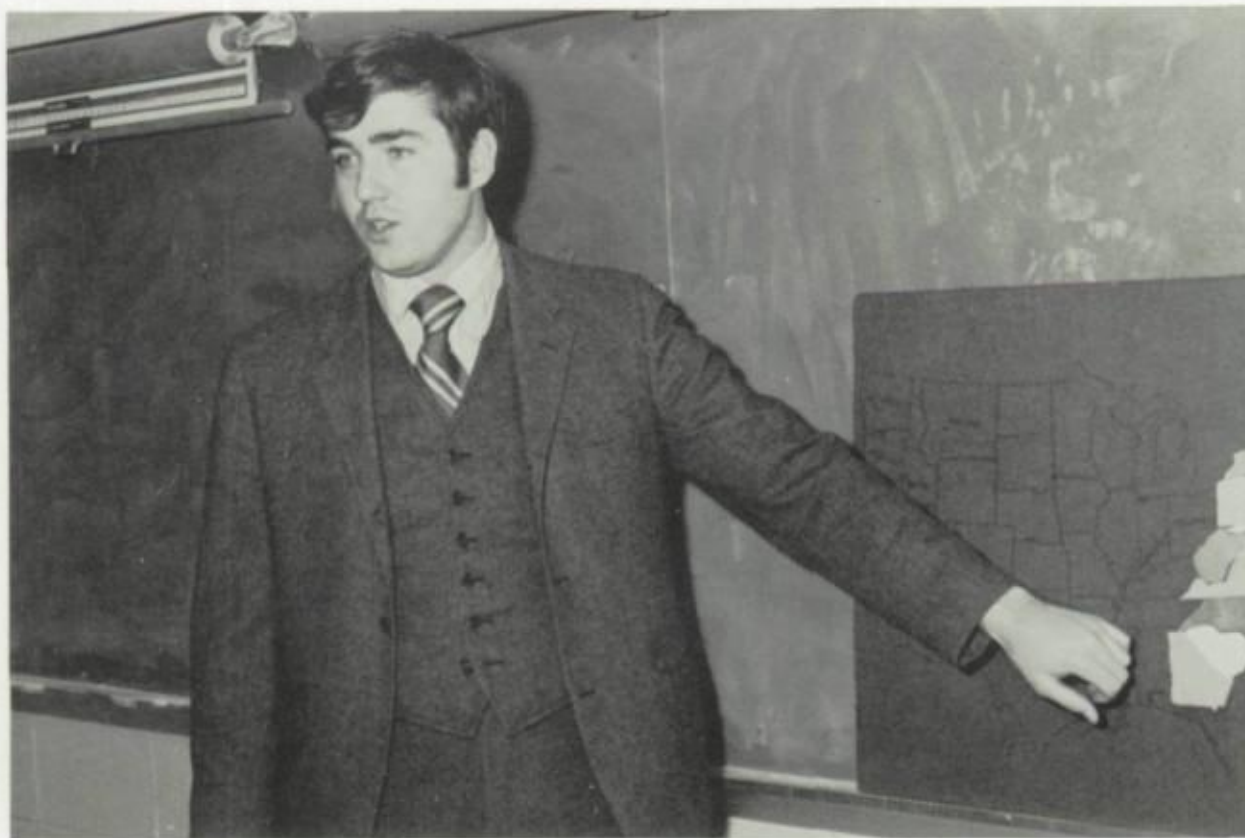

Mr. Shuler outlines the westward expansion of the country for his history classes.

Pointing out the answer to Ricky Pitt's probing question is Mrs. Gee.

Social Studies Teach the Past as Business

Courses Prepare Us for the Future

The geography of the Atlantic Seaboard is the topic of Mr. Moore's class.

Studying the past to improve the future is the idea behind all history classes. Students relive history from the first hatchet to the flight of Apollo 14.

Good bookkeeping practices are demonstrated by Mrs. Miller.

Mr. Leonard explains the disadvantages of the hunt and peck system.

Commerce classes help to prepare students for future careers in business. Learning typing, bookkeeping, general business and standard office practices, occupies the time of the students.

Besides coaching B-Team basketball, Mr. Stierwalt is kept busy teaching Driver's Education.

Students Learn the Value of Fine Arts

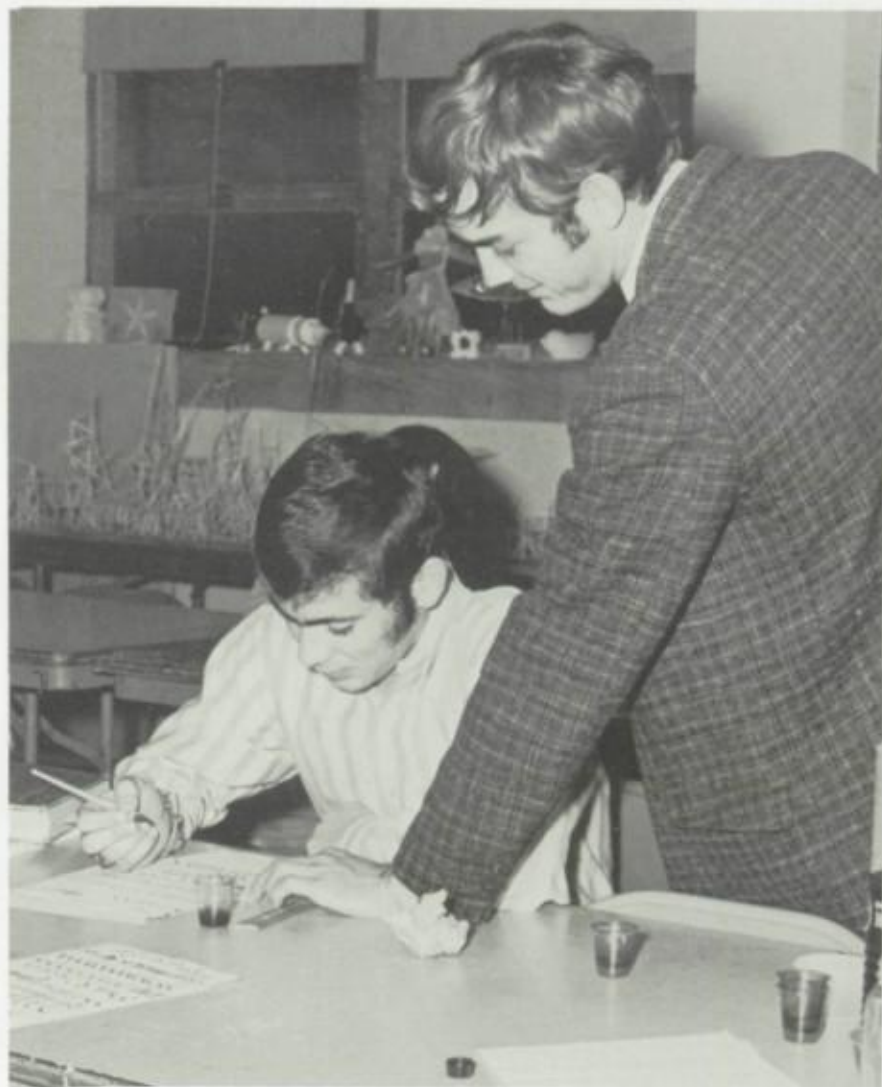

Mr. Avery and Lee Gormon study a new arrangement.

Music rings through the halls at MHS as the Monrovia Marching Bulldog Band tries out a new routine in the gym, and the all girl glee club rehearses for a special program. At the end of the day, the dance band can be heard, playing popular music, and modern jazz.

The art courses offered at Monrovia taught by Mr. James Saurland encompass a wide realm of subjects. Students study masterpieces by Renoir, Van Gogh, Gauguin, Rembrandt, Picasso and Matisse, as well as making their own paintings and drawings, and occasionally decorating the building for various school functions.

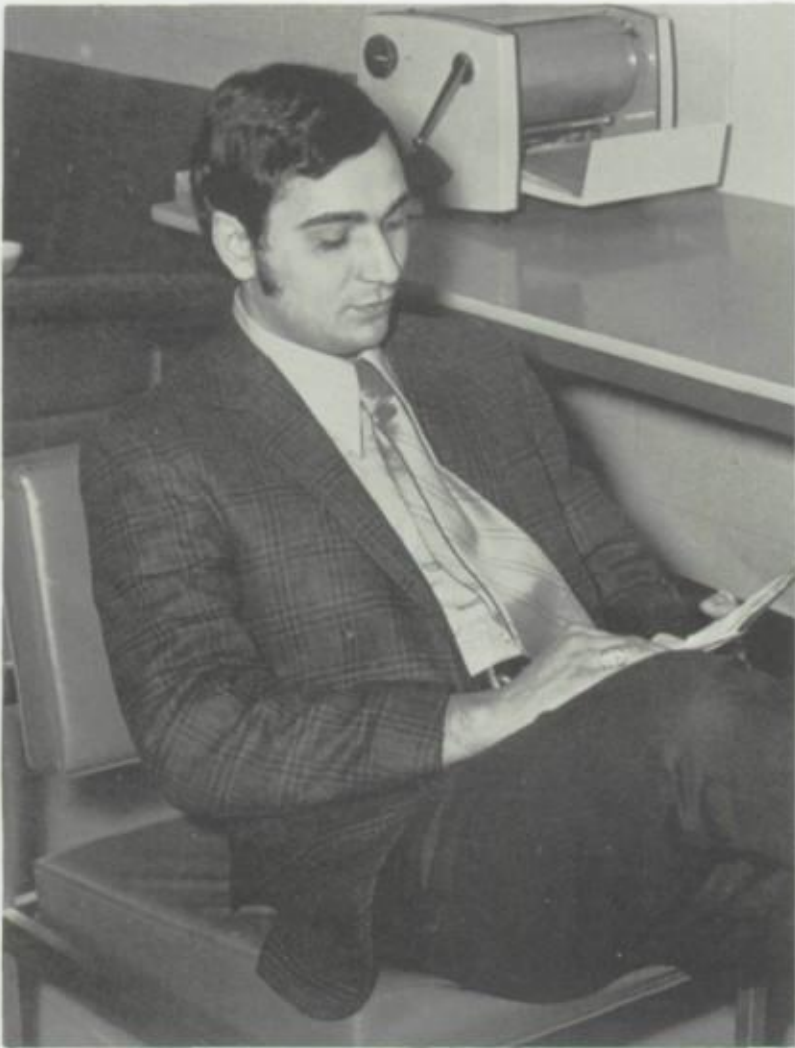

Singing and conducting songs are two important parts of Miss Palmer's duties as choir director.

Mr. Saurland instructs Rick Kivett in the art of India Ink drawing.

Domestic Arts Students Build Skills

Catching a quick rest during an exhausting day is Mr. Martin.

Domestic arts courses prepare girls for futures in homemaking and Vocational Agriculture courses teach boys to manage a farm. Activities are varied for either class. Mrs. Beard's Home Economics classes may be cooking dinner one week and practicing home nursing the next. The Vocational Agriculture program includes study of soil and plant sciences, as well as management, and livestock information.

This year's F.F.A. activities are being considered by Jeff Bauer and Mr. Wagner.

Mrs. Beard helps Sally Jefferies with a complicated stitch.

Steve Bratcher learns the fine points of using a compass from Mr. Jent.

"I know it is in there somewhere."

Mrs. Martin helps Polly Carter demonstrate the correct form of a headstand.

Mrs. Curtis gives a friendly wave to a passing student.

Football came to Monrovia in the fall of 1970-71, coached by Mr. Gary Demes. The football team, which consisted of seventh and eighth graders, many playing for the first time, boasted a 2-3 record. The young Bulldogs met five strong teams in their first season, some of which had been playing together for four years. They played each game with the stamina and determination so typical of all Bulldog teams. The spirit displayed by the young team and its coach was inspiring to the team's followers and to the community.

Cross Country Builds Endurance

Cooney, S. Faulkenburg, T. Powell, G. Anderson, J. Hummel, S. Kaiser, B. Burkett, R. Kivett, M. Youngblood.

The 1970-71 Cross Country team exhibited genuine Bulldog spirit and power, winning nearly 50% of their meets, 15 runners strong, the Bulldog Cross Country team ran in fifteen meets, winning seven of them. Some members of the team were running to qualify and build themselves for basketball, while others ran for the sake of running itself. All were driven to run Cross Country by an urge for competitiveness and the wish to bring a good record to Monrovia High School.

Steve Kaiser, Kim Bright and Rick Kivett practice to make a winning team.

Varsity Spurred on By Coach Patterson

The Bulldog Varsity Team closed its season with a record of 5 wins and 15 losses. In five of their games, the Bulldogs only lost by eight points or less. There was much improvement in the playing skill and off-floor attitude of the ball boys. High points of the season included winning the Powder Keg over the Eminence Eels and winning the first game of the Cascade Tourney.

The Seniors of 1971 are largely looking forward to graduating even though they regret losing their enjoyable years at Monrovia High.

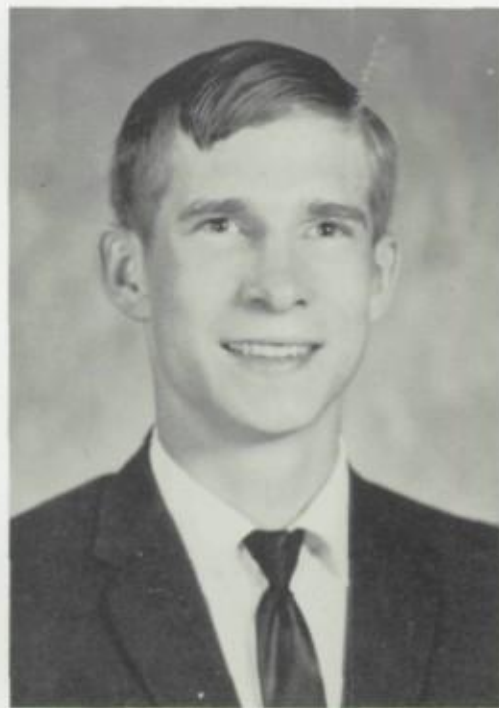

Through the past they have worked together as a class to reach many goals. Through the years they have sponsored dances, paper drives, and operated the refreshment stand — even collected pop bottles and picked corn. A large portion of this work went toward the highlighted event of the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Seniors of '71 will not be discouraged when they go out into the world but will face it with the enthusiasm they have shown in the past.

ords proudly.
